PANKHURST

at Oaks Park High School
& Specialist Music College

Oaks Lane, Newbury Park, Ilford IG2 7PQ
Friday 11 July, 2008. 2.00 – 3.00pm

THIS IS THE PREMIÈRE of CITIZEN OF THE WORLD, a short opera written and created by students at Oaks Park High School during a week of workshops led by composer David Bedford with director Kelly Wilkinson. The opera and workshops are part of the Heritage Lottery Funded project 'Celebrating Sylvia Pankhurst', comprising a number of events in the London Borough of Redbridge this year including an exhibition, plus a book and website.

TICKETS to the performance are free, bookable only in advance. Ring Mrs T. Rubery on 020 8590 2245, 9am – 12 noon weekdays, or e-mail trubery@oakspark.redbridge.sch.uk.

The great suffragette, artist and peace campaigner Sylvia Pankhurst lived in Woodford (now in the London Borough of Redbridge) for more than 32 years. Learn more about her and her contributions to the world on www.sylviapankhurst.com. For more information about this project, e-mail info@sylviapankhurst.com
